RE: REPAIR REQUEST LETTER

_____________________________ (today’s date)

Dear _______________________ (landlord name),

I am writing to you about repairs and services that are needed in the property I rent from you at:
 _____________________________________ (property address).

Here are the problems that need to be fixed:

1. ___________________________________
2. ___________________________________
3. ___________________________________
4. ___________________________________
5. ___________________________________

These conditions are serious and a breach of your legal responsibility to keep the unit in safe, sanitary and livable condition.

Please complete the requested repairs as soon as possible. If the repairs are not made by _________________ (future date), I intend to exercise my legal right to:

□ Withhold Rent until the repairs are made.
□ Repair and Deduct by hiring a repair person to complete the repairs and deducting the cost of repairs from my rent.

I appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

HOW DO I GET MY SECURITY DEPOSIT BACK?
The landlord does not have to return your security deposit until 30 days after you move. Here are some recommendations:

- Before you move out
  - Send landlord a letter with the date that you are moving. Keep a copy.
  - Leave the unit as clean as possible.
  - Take pictures of each room.
  - Do a walkthrough, if possible.

- After you move out
  - Return the keys to the landlord.
  - Send landlord a Security Deposit Request Letter that includes your forwarding address. Keep a copy of the letter. See a sample letter on page 8.
  - Your landlord has 30 days to respond to your request in writing and provide a list of itemized damages your deposit was applied to.
    - If you disagree with your landlord’s response, you can sue for your security deposit.
    - If your landlord does not respond at all, you can sue for double your security deposit.

HOW DO I SUE FOR MY SECURITY DEPOSIT?
Be careful! Before you sue your landlord, be sure that you do not owe for rent or damages greater than your security deposit. Here is the process:

- Go to Municipal Court at 1339 Chestnut Street, 10th floor
- Ask to File a Small Claims Complaint. State how much money you are claiming. Include your lease and letters.
- If you are low-income, ask to file a Petition to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (IFP). If the IFP is granted, you will not have to pay filing fees. You may still be responsible for a service fee.

WHAT IS THE EVICTION PROCESS?

1. Eviction Notice
   You may receive an eviction or lease termination notice telling you when your landlord wants you to move out. If you do not move out by that date, your landlord must take you to court in order to evict you. You are responsible for rent until you move out and return keys.

2. Court Complaint
   If you do not move out, the landlord must file an Eviction Complaint against you in Municipal Court to evict you. The Complaint should state the reason your landlord is evicting you and the date and time of the court hearing. The Complaint will be sent to you by the court by mail. It should also be posted to your door OR hand delivered by a process server.

3. Hearing
   Eviction hearings are in Municipal Court at 1339 Chestnut St, 6th Floor. You must arrive on time to court, or you may lose. At the hearing you can sign an agreement or speak to the judge. If you are late or miss your hearing, you may file a Petition to Open at 1339 Chestnut St, 10th floor.

4. Appeal
   If you lose at the hearing, you will have 10 calendar days to file an appeal in the Court of Common Pleas, City Hall, Room 296. The appeal stops an eviction from taking place until the court rules on the case, as long as you pay ongoing rent to the court. If you want to appeal only the money judgment (meaning you no longer want to stay in the property), you will have 30 calendar days to file an appeal.

5. Eviction
   If you lose in court and do not appeal, or if you break your agreement, then your landlord can legally evict you. Your landlord must file eviction papers with the court (writ of possession and alias writ of possession). The landlord tenant officer cannot change your locks sooner than 21 days after the judgment. If your judgment was for money only, then you may have the right to pay the judgment and stay in the property.
WHAT SHOULD I BRING TO EVICTION COURT?

Any documents that relate to the reason your landlord is trying to evict you. Example: lease, rent receipts, documents related to repair issues, utility bills, photos, letters or texts to or from the landlord.

WHAT ARE MY OPTIONS IN EVICTION COURT?

1. Ask for a continuance.
   - You can get the hearing postponed if you need an interpreter.
   - You can ask for the hearing to be postponed to get a lawyer, but the landlord may object.

   OR

2. Have a hearing in front of a judge.
   - You have the right to have a hearing in front of a judge instead of signing an agreement.
   - You can present your evidence and defenses to the judge.
   - If you lose, you must appeal within 10 days of the judgment if you want to stop the eviction.

   OR

3. Sign a Judgment by Agreement.
   - Do not sign an agreement unless you agree and can keep it.
   - If you sign an agreement, it is final. You cannot appeal.
   - If you break the agreement, the landlord can evict you.

If you are late or miss your hearing, you may file a Petition to Open at 1339 Chestnut St, 10th floor.
